

Members' News. 5-12 Oct 2021

Berlin School of Economics and Law

Erasmus mobility projects of HWR Berlin will get funding of EUR 1.25 million until 2023. New programmes include digital and blended formats and thus offer flexible options.

<https://www.hwr-berlin.de/aktuelles/neuigkeiten/neuigkeit-detail/2402-neue-wege-auslandserfahrung-sammeln/>

University of Latvia

In order to discuss the role of a modern university and sustainability aspects in the development of the university, a forum of ideas «Striving for Excellence: Development of a Modern University» was held on 24 September and timed to the 102nd anniversary of the University of Latvia. More about the discussions and video recording of the forum: <https://www.ozolzile.lu.lv/par-mums/zinas/zina/t/68087/>

University of Warsaw

Rector's team for ecology and climate crisis prepared a document presenting strategic milestones that the university wants to achieve in the coming years. The agenda is related to the UN Sustainable Development Goals. One can get acquainted with the agenda here: <https://www.uw.edu.pl/agenda-na-rzecz-klimatu-i-zrownowazonego-rozwoju/>

Immanuel Kant Baltic Federal University

According to the RUR Ranking, IKBFU has climbed more than 100 positions and took the 468th place in the world in Humanities (17th in Russia), as well as climbed more than 70 positions and took the 461st place in Social Sciences (16th in Russia). In total, 700 HEIs were assessed.

<https://kantiana.ru/news/bfu-im-i-kanta-v-top-20-luchshih-vuzov-rossii-po-gumanitarnym-i-socialnym-naukam-rejtinga-rur-2021/>

St. Petersburg Electrotechnical University

LETI will organise a discussion «Big City University» on 13 October at 16:00. During the event, experts will share institutional and business solutions for the integration of the university into city life to meet challenges and drive social and economic changes in the university and the city. Programme and registration: <https://etu.ru/en/university/news/big-city-university>.